Rules for the Blasting of Rocks in or near any public road, street, thoroughfare, or place in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, published under Section 20 of Act XLVIII of 1860.

1. No person shall blast any rock in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba without a License from the Commissioner of Police.

2. The holder or holders of this License shall produce it to any officer of Police who may demand to see it.

3. The blasts at the said quarry shall be exploded only between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock P.M.

4. Before the explosion of each blasting charge, a strong wooden lattice sufficiently laden with stone, shall be placed immediately over the drift so as to prevent, as far as possible, the projection of fragments of stone by the explosion of the blasting charge.

5. The holder of this License shall employ such number of watchers as may be considered necessary by the Commissioner of Police to give warning to bystanders or passers-by of the intended explosion of each blasting charge.

6. If the safety or convenience of the public shall at any time appear to demand the alteration or revocation of this License, it shall be altered or revoked accordingly, as the Commissioner of Police may in his discretion see fit.
